St. Alban's Anglican Cathedral

First Sunday after the Epiphany

January 7, 2018

The drawing of St. Alban's Cathedral is the work of Marie Cashion, a member of the parish family.

Welcome!

We are delighted that you have chosen to worship with us at St. Alban's. We are blessed by your presence. In this booklet you will find the order of the liturgy. In worship, we use the American Book of Common Prayer, 1928 Edition which is found in the pews. The hymns listed here and on the hymn board in the front of the church are found in the Red Hymnals in your pew. Our Bible readings are provided in this bulletin and Bibles are in your pew if you prefer to look up the passages.

Nursery care is available directly across the courtyard in the middle classroom of our fellowship hall.

CHRIST, WHEN FOR US YOU WERE BAPTIZED

Words: F. Bland Tucker (1895-1984)

Music: Caithness, from The Psalmes of David in Prose and Meeter, 1635

Christ, when for us you were bap-tized,
God called you his be-lov-ed Son,
Straight-way and stead-fast un-til death,
Bap-tize us with your Spi-rit, Lord,

God's Spi-rit on you came,
called you his ser-vant true,
you then o-beyed his call,
your cross on us be signed,

as peace-ful as a dove and yet sent you his king-dom to pro-claim, free-ly as Son of Man to serve that, like-wise in God's ser-vice we

as ur-gent as a flame.
his ho-ly will to do,
and give your life for all.
may per-fect free-dom find.

The First Sunday after the Epiphany

Isaiah 42:1-9

Behold my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my Spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations. He will not cry aloud or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street; a bruised reed he will not break, and a faintly burning wick he will not quench; he will faithfully bring forth justice. He will not grow faint or be discouraged till he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his law. Thus says God, the Lord, who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and what comes from it, who gives breath to the people on it and spirit to those who walk in it: “I am the Lord; I have called you in righteousness; I will take you by the hand and keep you; I will give you as a covenant for the people, a light for the nations, to open the eyes that are blind, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness. I am the Lord; that is my name; my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to carved idols. Behold, the former things have come to pass, and new things I now declare; before they spring forth I tell you of them.”

Psalm 89:1-20

BCP 450

Acts 10:34-38

So Peter opened his mouth and said: “Truly I understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. As for the word that he sent to Israel, preaching good news of peace through Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all), you yourselves know what happened throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism that John proclaimed: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.”

Mark 1:7-11

John the Baptist preached, saying, “After me comes he who is mightier than I, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and untie. I have baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.” In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. And when he came up out of the water, immediately he saw the heavens opening and the Spirit descending on him like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.”
