

St. Alban's Anglican Cathedral

Sixth Sunday after Trinity

July 23, 2017

The drawing of St. Alban's Cathedral is the work of Marie Cashion, a member of the parish family.

Welcome!

We are delighted that you have chosen to worship with us at St. Alban's. We are blessed by your presence. In this booklet you will find the order of the liturgy. In worship, we use the American Book of Common Prayer, 1928 Edition which is found in the pews. The hymns listed here and on the hymn board in the front of the church are found in the Red Hymnals in your pew. Our Bible readings are provided in this bulletin and Bibles are in your pew if you prefer to look up the passages.

Nursery care is available directly across the courtyard in the middle classroom of our fellowship hall.

Sixth Sunday after Trinity

Wisdom 12:13, 16-19 (RSV)

There is no god besides thee, whose care is for all men, to whom thou shouldst prove that thou hast not judged unjustly; For thy strength is the source of righteousness, and thy sovereignty over all causes thee to spare all. For thou dost show thy strength when men doubt the completeness of thy power, and dost rebuke any insolence among those who know it. Thou who art sovereign in strength dost judge with mildness, and with great forbearance thou dost govern us; for thou hast power to act whenever thou dost choose. Through such works thou has taught thy people that the righteous man must be kind, and thou hast filled thy sons with good hope, because thou givest repentance for sins.

Psalm 86:1-10

BCP 447

Romans 8:18-25

For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God. For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of him who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until now. And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. For in this hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Matthew 13:24-30, 36-43

Jesus put another parable before the people, saying, "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field, but while his men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat and went away. So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared also. And the servants of the master of the house came and said to him, 'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have weeds?' He said to them, 'An enemy has done this.' So the servants said to him, 'Then do you want us to go and gather them?' But he said, 'No, lest in gathering the weeds you root up the wheat along with them. Let both grow together until the harvest, and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Gather the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.” Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples came to him, saying, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.” He answered, “The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. The field is the world, and the good seed is the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the close of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are gathered and burned with fire, so will it be at the close of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all law-breakers, and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear.”

Thank you for your generosity!

Volunteer opportunities and locations are posted on the www.hopehelps.org website.

FINAL WEEK: HEALTHCARE SCHOLARSHIP—The Shirley Hines Memorial Healthcare Scholarship deadline is this Saturday, July 29. If you, a family member or a friend has been accepted into a healthcare education program, you may be eligible for one of our Shirley Hines Memorial Scholarships. Go to the St. Alban's website (www.stalbansfl.com) and download the application and the directions for the scholarship.

SECOND SUNDAY BREAKFASTS—Over the past 8 years, we have gathered as a parish family for “Second Sunday Breakfast” every month from September through May. Over the past couple seasons, there has been a significant waning of enthusiasm, both in attendance and folks willing to prepare the meals. As Church life and activities evolve, keeping traditions for traditions’ sake is unnecessary. Looking ahead toward this fall, when many activities like this will resume, the question arises whether this tradition has out-lived its purpose. In the courtyard this morning, there is a sign-up sheet for those who would like to ‘sponsor’ a month, meaning prepare breakfast for roughly 100 of our church family. If you would like additional information before committing, please see Fr. Ralph! The level of interest will tell us whether or not these monthly gatherings should continue for at least another year.

GRACE ‘N GRITS—The next date that St. Alban’s volunteers will be serving the homeless at the Sanford Civic Center will be Wednesday, August 2, from 5:00-7:00 p.m. The Sanford Civic Center is located at 401 E. Seminole Blvd., Sanford, 32771. Your service is greatly appreciated. For questions, please contact Fr. Boyd at (407) 610-6456 or frboyd@stalbansfl.com.

THE TUESDAY MORNING WOMEN’S BIBLE STUDY will resume weekly meetings on Tuesday, August 29. Our class meets from 9:00-11:00 a.m. in Kimsey Hall Parish House library with childcare provided in the nursery. To begin our year, we will be studying Paul’s letter to the Galatians using Brendan Byrne’s Galatians and Romans published by Liturgical Press. It is available new, used and for Kindle on Amazon. We welcome women of all ages to join us for study, prayer and fellowship. This year’s leader is Amy Clark. Call, text or email to sign-up or for questions, 407-920-4365 or amy@stlukesattic.com.

FLOWER GUILD HELP—Our altar flowers are provided by our Flower Guild to enhance the beauty of our church and worship. The Flower Guild is inviting new volunteers to help grow this meaningful ministry. No experience is necessary; the women of the Guild will help you learn the art of creating beautiful arrangements. The commitment to serve involves assembling flowers for the altar just a few Sundays a year. Please let Fr. Ralph know if you are interested.

THANK YOU—“I wanted to thank everyone who prepared meals, sent get-well cards, and especially prayed for me during my recent back surgery. Your kindness was truly appreciated by me, as well as by Lisa and Gary Ulrich, my wonderful and tireless caregivers. God bless you, Joyce Mosley”
